TICKETS TO THE WORLD'S FAIR

And There Is Now No Reason Why a Man With a Twenty Dollar Bill Should Hold Back—There Is a Rush but You can be Accommodated if Application is Made at Once. Be in at the Wind-up

Everybody's chance has come to see the World's Fair before its marvels have become a tale that is told. The INTELLIGENCER is glad to be able to announce to its friends that it can now fit them out for the journey at a dollar less than heretofore.

The round trip ticket may now be had for $10, and it is good every day on any train going and coming. It is an excursion rate to suit everybody, but the trains are the regular first class trains, not excursion trains.

Seeing that the INTELLIGENCER furnishes the railroad ticket and seven nights' lodging in a first class hotel for $13 and for $14, there is no longer any reason why anybody should be left when the fair shall be no more.

The people are flocking to the fair to take a last look at its beauties, but those who will apply at once can be provided by the INTELLIGENCER with exactly what they want. If they do not desire to remain seven nights they can have hotel accommodations for fewer nights. If they want more they can have that. Anybody with a loose $20 bill about him can now take in the fair and make the best investment he ever made in his life.

The INTELLIGENCER takes the liberty to urge its friends again not to put off making their arrangements. Come in at once and see the very best the INTELLIGENCER can do for you. The probability is that this will be very much better than you think.

By night INTELLIGENCER tourists may be going free and taking a chromo of the fair with them. It will be worth while to be on hand when the great wind-up comes. Chicago is determined to do herself proud on that occasion and to make it a memorable chapter in the history of the greatest of World's Fairs.

WORLD'S FAIR TOURISTS.

People Coming from and Going to the Big Exhibition.

Col. Ran Stalnaker has returned from a visit to the fair.

Walter Wols left yesterday by way of the Baltimore & Ohio.

H. E. Waddell left yesterday for the fair over the Pan-Handle.

A. W. Logan, of the Island, left for the White City yesterday.

Miss Laura M. Conner returned last evening from the World's Fair.

The Pan-Handle carried a heavy passenger list for the fair yesterday.

W. A. Hodge, H. Frye and L. H. Miller left over the Pan-Handle yesterday.

Thomas H. Morgan and Louis Fuhr left over the Baltimore & Ohio yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Keim, of Indiana street, left yesterday on a tour to Chicago and the fair.

Mrs. Allan S. Howell and daughter, Miss Ella, left yesterday over the Baltimore & Ohio for the fair.

Mrs. Chas. D. Adams was among those that left over the Baltimore & Ohio for the fair yesterday.

Harry C. Franzheim, wife, child and nurse left yesterday afternoon over the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling.

William Cowan, of Bethany, sheriff of Brooke county passed through the city yesterday on his way to the fair.

Mrs. K. R. Sarver and Mrs. Jennie Brinton were among the World's Fair visitors this morning via the Baltimore & Ohio.

F. S. Simpson and wife, W. J. Vogler and L. B. Wilhelm left over the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling yesterday for the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hicks, Mrs. Hoge, Harry E. Stifel and Mrs. W. H. Jamison all left over the Baltimore & Ohio yesterday for the fair.

Mr. G. F. Moffat and wife, of Sardis, Ohio; Miss Lottie Dickson and Miss Belle Kuntz, of Wheeling, and E. M. Lawrence, of Mt. Pleasant, left over the Baltimore & Ohio yesterday.

Among the West Virginians that left for the fair yesterday over the Baltimore & Ohio were Alex Campbell, jr., of Bethany, J. E. Smith, of Shannon, F. D. Frye, of Keiser, F. D. Young and W. E. Allen, of Sistersville, Geo. C. Smith, of West Liberty, E. T. Moore and wife, of West Alexander.

It Was a Fake.

The dispatch from Bridgeport that originally appeared in a Pittsburgh paper and was reprinted in the Register yesterday, upon investigation proves to be a fake without the shadow of foundation, merely an indifferently told dialect story. To begin with there is no such man as Worthy Evans, at least nobody has ever heard of him. True, there are a large number of Welchmen employed at the Etta-Standard mills in Ettaville, but those who had read the story printed were indignant, and declare that they don't intend to let the wool be pulled over their eyes during these piping times of idleness and Democratic rule by the Register, as was done last fall. The story is impossible on its face. No Welchman who has been in this country over twenty years uses the dialect that figures in the dispatch. Finally, McKinley was not booked to speak at Ettaville. There was some talk of having him appear there, but he was not engaged.

BUCKINGHAM'S Dye for the whiskers does its work thoroughly, coloring a uniform brown or black, which, when dry, will neither rub, wash off, nor soil linen.

Cheap Daily Excursions to Chicago via Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.
Every day until October 30, the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets, Wheeling to Chicago and return, at rate of $10, good ten days from date of sale.

SHOES—ALEXANDER.

Men of Good Standing

In this town are standing in our shoes—we don't mind that; they paid for the privilege. That is one reason why they "stand good," and walk comfortably. Every one of them is wearing which have no equal in the way of a glove fit for the foot. We are ready to make a bet that any man who wears a "PHIT-EESI" SHOE will never care for any other kind of footwear. He knows he can't get better, no matter what price he pays for them.

THE "PHIT-EESI" SHOES.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad.

Mr. N. D. Helmick is visiting friends in Charleston.

Hannibal Forbes has returned from an extended western trip.

R. A. Long and Miss R. A. Milligan left yesterday for Garner, Iowa.

Amos Hill and family, of Belmont county, left yesterday for Anthony, Kan.

George W. Brunswick has resigned his position as janitor of the Terminal station.

Albert Medor, secretary of the Ohio Valley China Company, left yesterday on a business trip to New York.

Mrs. Orr and sister and Miss Gussie Pfeil, of Baltimore, Md., who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. Keim, have returned home.

Mrs. Dr. Mason, of Wheeling, and daughters, Helen and Ruth, are visiting at the home of her father, A. H. Battin.

—Shepherdstown Gazette.

"We wish Judge Jackson, of West Virginia," says the Shepherdstown Register, "could be president of the senate for about half an hour. He'd make the dust fly from 'precedent.'"

Mr. Henry Redman and wife returned yesterday from a visit to relatives in the Valley of Virginia. Mrs. Reed, of Covington, Ky., Mrs. Redman's sister, accompanied them, and will spend several weeks here visiting.

Capt. Charles Adams, the popular Baltimore & Ohio conductor between Wheeling and Pittsburgh, was taken sick on his run yesterday morning, and was brought back from out the road on the morning train. He was able to be out yesterday afternoon, but was looking badly.

Chief Long Nose, of Baltimore, who has been here as the guest of the Kickapooes, left yesterday for Pittsburgh to consult Big Chief Gold Dust in regard to the innovations on the "Cherokee Strip." After his "big talk" he will buy a new pair of moccasins and take the trail for his wigwam on the shores of the Chesapeake.

Col. William Wilson, the jolly, rotund Republican, of New York, who will be remembered by many enthusiastic Republicans of this city, is in the city on a brief business trip. Col. Wilson on the night news was received here of President Harrison's election "carried" the town, and then wanted to decorate the other side of the river. He is still the same jolly Republican as of yore. He has lost much flesh since his last trip.

West Virginia State Building.
State Auditor Johnson has returned from the fair, says the Charleston Gazette. He says West Virginia's chances for getting the state building there are slim. Florida has put in a good bid for it.
